District Goals and Objectives

Philosophy
Policy 1003

Policy Statement

Educational programs in the district shall be consistent with the goal that each student acquires the following:

- Mastery of basic skills required for obtaining and expressing ideas through the effective use of words, numbers, and symbols
- Attitudes and competencies that facilitate learning
- Vocational or professional competence
- Habits and attitudes necessary for responsible citizenship
- Understanding of the elements necessary for physical and emotional well-being
- Concern for moral and ethical values
- Appreciation of his/her own worth as a member of society
- Understanding and appreciation for the humanities and the arts
- Appreciation for the value of family and positive social interaction

When programs are designed to meet the goals, they should take into consideration

- The students to be educated
- The ways in which students learn
- Means for attaining the goals
- The legal structures within which schools must be established and operated
- The needs and demands of the economy and society
- The material and human resources needed to meet the goals
- Research, professional knowledge, and best practices

Definitions

Responsibility
